NOTE

This is an up-to-date list of agricultural economics publications available from Cornell University. The publications listed are in five categories:

- I. Department A.E. Series Publications
- II. Food Distribution Publications
- III. USAID Prices Research Contract Papers
- IV. College Publications
- V. Books by Members of The Department

Department A.E. Series Publications are processed in the Department of Agricultural Economics. These are identified either as "A.E. Res." or "A.E. Ext." The "A.E. Res." series reports the results of research projects. The "A.E. Ext." series is based on extension projects and are usually of interest only to specialized groups. Copies of the A.E. Series publications can be obtained by writing to:

C. A. Bratton
442 Warren Hall
Cornell University
Ithaca, New York 14850

The second category is Food Distribution Publications. These deal with a specialized phase of marketing. A group of these are used in a home study program designed especially for food industry employees. Inquiries concerning these publications should be sent to: Gene A. German, 249 Warren Hall, Cornell University, Ithaca, New York 14850.

A third category includes a series of papers reporting results from a USAID Prices Research Contract. Requests for these should be sent to: John W. Mellor, 349 Warren Hall, Cornell University, Ithaca, New York 14850.

College Publications are in three series. The first is Experiment Station Bulletins; the second, Cornell Extension Bulletins; and the third, International Agricultural Development Bulletins. These publications can be obtained by writing to:

Mailing Room
Bldg. 7, Research Park
Cornell University
Ithaca, New York 14850

Books authored by members of the Department can be obtained from the publisher or a bookstore.

County Census Information

Agricultural census information has been compiled for each county in New York State. This includes selected basic data by towns which are not published in the Census Bureau reports. Information from the 1964 Census of Agriculture and comparisons with 1954 and 1959 Census data are included in A. E. Ext. 475 for each county.

A similar series based on the 1959 Census of Agriculture is available in A.E. Ext. 207.

The 1954 Census of Agriculture information was published as A.E. 1080.

When ordering census publications, indicate the A.E. number and the county desired, for example, "A.E. Ext. 475 - Yates County".

III. USAID PRICES RESEARCH CONTRACT PAPERS

A series of studies of topics relating to agricultural prices and economic development is being carried on at Cornell University as part of a USAID financed contract. The director of the project is John W. Mellor. These studies are concerned with the effects of agricultural prices on the nonagricultural sectors of the economy, with their effects on the agricultural sector, and with the manner in which agricultural prices are determined.

Below is a list of papers so far completed as part of this program. In a number of cases, papers have been republished in journals. The specifics of such publication are given. Requests for these papers should be sent to:

IV. COLLEGE PUBLICATIONS

The College of Agriculture at Cornell publishes and distributes bulletins. These are in three major categories: (1) Cornell Experiment Station Bulletins, (2) Cornell Extension Bulletins, and (3) International Agricultural Development Publications. Complete listings of the three categories are available upon request.

Members of the staff in Agricultural Economics are authors of numerous publications in these series. The identifying numbers, titles, and authors are listed below. Requests for College publications should be sent to:
